

Spain wakes up and fights for liberty rights! – Interview with Henna Maria

Henna Marias activism focuses on educating people about the spiritual reality of life, human and animal rights, medical freedom and self-sovereignty. In 2021, Henna became an international representative for Policías por la Libertad. In this interview Henna Maria speaks about the mission of this group.

Henna Maria is an activist, speaker, writer and practitioner of ancestral healing arts, which she learnt apprenticing with the Shipibo tribe in the Amazon rainforest. She is also a devoted student of Natural Law and the Essene Way. In 2019 Henna founded Dawn of Peace, a non-profit peace organisation. Her activism focuses on educating people about the spiritual reality of life, human and animal rights, medical freedom and self-sovereignty. In 2021, Henna became an international representative for Policías por la Libertad.

The association “Police for Freedom” was created in 2020 with the aim of contributing to the well-being and social cohesion in these difficult times, both for the citizens and members of the security forces, military and security guards. The mission of this group is to re-humanise our society, bringing back trust and unity within our uniformed and civilian sisters and brothers. The peaceful marches, events and content created by Policías por la Libertad aim to educate people about their human rights, civil liberties, constitutional rights as well as the ethical code of conduct for the police and security forces.
