

Trump's Inauguration Jan. 20, 2025: Where will Trump's Election and Cabinet II take us?

In this program, you learn about the possible goals and ambitions of Trump and his cabinet. The composition of Trump's government team and statements from key figures reveal a foreign policy roadmap for the next four years: Trump seems to pave the way for shifting warzones to the Middle East, to set the stage for building the Third Temple on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem – which must lead to the predicted bloody World War III – and, ultimately, to install a centralised world government with a unified occult religion in Jerusalem. You find more – including the way out – in this program.

US scientist and entrepreneur Dr. Eli David on November 13, 2024: "Trump's cabinet is now officially more pro-Israel than the Israeli cabinet."

The Hamikdash Betzion Organization (The Temple in Zion) believes that Trump's declaration on December 6th 2017 – in which Jerusalem is recognized as the capital of Israel – has placed the US president in a role similar to that of King Cyrus at the time.

"President Trump's right ear was pierced and injured in a symbolic gesture according to Exodus 21:6, as it says in the Torah that a servant who wants to stay with his master must have his right ear pierced. Trump was called God's servant and anointed one, just like Cyrus the Great almost 2,400 years ago."

According to the news portal "Israel365News", Donald Trump, as a non-Jewish leader of the USA, has to play a prophesied role in the construction of the Temple.

Important note:

Kla.TV expressly points out that mentioning persons, backgrounds and connections in this program does not intend to mislead the viewer into making an anti-Semitic judgment. Even when the people and interest groups cited in this program act under the flag of the Israeli government and say they are Jews, every viewer should keep in mind that violence, in principle, must never induce racist judgments, regardless of which side is perpetrating it. Because upon closer examination, you often find the following: People who come to the public's attention through investigative journalism divert attention from their acts of violence by putting forward their religious group or nation as a scapegoat or protective shield. Thus hatred and subsequent violence is deliberately and unlawfully targeting a religious community or nation. The fact that, in many cases, you are not dealing with real Jews or real worshipers of other religions, but with a Luciferian ideology, is explained in detail in the programs "Against Racism and Conspiracy" [www.kla.tv/23558] and "The Secret of the Obelisks" [www.kla.tv/14340]. This documentary too provides evidence of this very connection.

On January 20, 2025, Donald Trump will be sworn in as the 47th President of the United States. Donald Trump's character divides people's minds and opinion like no other. For some, he is the long-awaited "savior" who will "drain the swamp" and "destroy the deep state". For others, he is an unpredictable "destroyer of democracy" and a "spreader of hatred".

The documentary "THE TRUMP FILE – Savior or Part of the Deep State?" [www.kla.tv/30749] from October 2024 shows Trump's connections to the Deep State and Luciferian High Degree Freemasonry.

In this program here, we will take a look into the future. Statements on Trump's election on the one hand, and the composition of his government team for his second term on the other hand shed light on this. It consists of the so-called Cabinet of the United States made of the President, Vice President and 14 ministers, and of other people who are designated for key positions. Can a possible foreign policy roadmap for the next four years be derived from the composition of Trump's government team? Is there a common denominator that connects Trump's appointees? And what conclusions can be drawn from such a common denominator?

Kla.TV has investigated the people appointed by Trump and discovered a common denominator. And this is the Israel-Gaza war, an armed conflict between Israel and Hamas since October 7, 2023. Hamas is an "Islamic Resistance Movement", that forms the government of the Gaza Strip and has been internationally classified as a terrorist organization by 41 nations.

International reactions to the Israel-Gaza war do vary. Some have been insisting on Israel's right to self-defense since the Hamas terror attack on October 7th 2023 – which left 1,139 Israelis dead and 239 hostages. Others question the proportionality of Israeli attacks considering the more than 45,000 deaths among Palestinians (as of January 2025). This is according to statements of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, a slight majority of these being women and children.

The Irish-Canadian international law expert William Schabas said in January 2024 that "it was becoming increasingly clear to him that Israel's goal was not to defeat Hamas, but rather to uproot or wipe out the population of the Gaza Strip".

David Sorensen's documentary film [www.kla.tv/27352] shows serious inconsistencies in the alleged surprise attack by Hamas on October 7, 2023, and he speaks of "a planned operation on all fronts". I quote Sorensen: "It feels like the people of Israel and the people of Palestine have been sold once again to the higher powers that be." Sorensen also points out that Hamas was founded to give Israel a pretext for taking complete control of the entire Gaza Strip.

In March 2019, Netanyahu told his Likud colleagues at a meeting of his center-right Likud party: "Anyone who wants to thwart the establishment of a Palestinian state has to support bolstering Hamas and transferring money to Hamas. ... This is part of our strategy to isolate the Palestinians in the West Bank."

But now back to Trump's appointees to his government team and the one big common denominator. They are all "pro-Israel" as, for example, they dismissed the Amnesty International report published at the beginning of December 2024, which stated that "Israel was committing genocide". They defend the disproportionate actions of the Israeli government and speak out against a ceasefire.

According to an article by the US non-profit organization "The Palestine Chronicle", dated 13 November 2024, "every single pick (of Trump's cabinet) is either a Christian Zionist or a Jewish Zionist, all of them hardliners in their stances on the issue."

The term "Zionist" here refers primarily to people who advocate or actively support the existence of a Jewish state in the Middle East. The word is derived from Zion, the name of the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. After the founding of the state of Israel in 1948, many Zionists pursued the goal of re-establishing a biblical Greater Israel. The temple on the Temple Mount is also said to be rebuilt.

At the UN General Assembly in September 2024, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu presented a map of Israel that also includes the Palestinian territories. The Jewish-American daily newspaper "Forward" on November 13, 2024 reads: "Trump's first picks are die-hard Israel supporters, mocking the pro-Palestinian protest voters."

The Israeli daily "Haaretz" on November 13, 2024: "Only Netanyahu Could Have Chosen a Cushier Trump Foreign Policy team. So far, Donald Trump's appointees, from Mike Huckabee to Pete Hegseth, highlight how much of a priority the Middle East will be for him. Pro-Israel hawks are pleased..."

The independent news portal "InformationLiberation" on November 12, 2024 reads: (The US Editor in Chief) "Ben Shapiro Celebrates Trump Assembling an Israel First Cabinet." US scientist and entrepreneur Dr. Eli David on November 13, 2024: "Trump's cabinet is now officially more pro-Israel than the Israeli cabinet." The common denominator of uncritical support for Israel is obvious not only in Trump's government team, but also in the US Congress: The Israeli daily newspaper "The Jerusalem Post" on November 7, 2024: AIPAC-backed candidates win big in US elections, strengthening pro-Israel presence in Congress. The pro-Israeli political action committee AIPAC has aided 318 Zionist candidates to win so far in the recent US elections.

Before we take a closer look at some of Trump's government appointees, let's first take a look at Trump himself. Are there any recent statements by personalities that indicate which role he could play in the Middle East in the next four years of his term of office?

Possible roadmap for Donald Trump's 2nd term and his conceivable role in it: Donald Trump received 100 million dollars for his election campaign from the Israeli-American doctor and self-confessed Zionist Miriam Adelson. The Swiss news portal "Watson" wrote that Adelson was a hardcore Israel lobbyist and a vehement opponent of a two-state solution.

On October 27, 2020, the Israeli internet newspaper "The Times of Israel" listed 100 ways in which President Trump had supported Israel during his first term in office.

Here are the first ten points:

1. President Trump recognized Jerusalem as the capital of Israel
2. President Trump moved the American embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem
3. President Trump closed the Jerusalem consulate and made it an embassy
4. President Trump has never publicly criticized Israel
5. President Trump pulled America out of the Iran deal
6. President Trump raised military aid to Israel by $400 million.
7. President Trump raised sanctions on Iran as soon as pulled out of the deal

8. President Trump recognized the sovereignty of Israel on the Golan Heights
9. President Trump designated IRGC (Iranian Special Forces) a foreign terrorist group
10. President Trump banned BDS head Omar Barghouti from America (BDS: Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions wants to boycott the state of Israel to demand the end of the "occupation of all Arab land").

Point 1 is of far-reaching significance: On December 6, 2017, US President Donald Trump announced the official recognition of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel by the USA.

Professor Hillel Weiss told the Israeli news portal "Arutz Sheva" that this was an historic act for which the Jewish people are grateful. Weiss is chairman of the Israeli Temple organization Hamikdash Betzion (which means: The Temple in Zion). Weiss warned, however, that Trump must not stop now if his administration was to receive God's full blessing. "The Trump statement must continue with an explanation of the Jews' role in establishing the Temple in its place. Only then will Trump's international ambitions in the Middle East come true."

Professor Hillel Weiss addresses the construction of the so-called "Third Temple" on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. In the expectation of the coming Messiah (Hebrew משיח Mashiach), one of the conditions in the Jewish religion is that the "Jewish Temple in Jerusalem" (the "Third Temple") be rebuilt (Mic 4:1 EU). The Islamic sites, the Al-Aqsa Mosque and the Dome of the Rock, would have to make way for this – either be relocated or completely destroyed.

One of the many Israeli groups preparing to build the Third Temple has issued a half-shekel coin with the images of Persian King Cyrus [c. 590/580 BCE - 530 BCE] and U.S. President Donald Trump.

Cyrus allowed the Jews in 539 BC to return to the land of Israel after their captivity in Babylon, thereby enabling them to build the Second Temple. The organization Hamikdash Betzion [The Temple in Zion] believes that Trump's declaration on December 6, 2017 – in which Jerusalem is recognized as the capital of Israel – has placed the US president in a role similar to that of King Cyrus at the time.

And thus you see engraved on the new coin below the heads of Cyrus and Trump: "And He (God) charged me to build Him a house in Jerusalem." In a video message, Rabbi Isser Zalman Weisberg gives a more detailed explanation of how the Third Temple in Jerusalem shall be built under Trump's 2nd term in office. This appeared on July 24, 2024 on Adam Green's X channel, shortly after the alleged assassination attempt on Donald Trump.

According to Rabbi Weisberg, Donald Trump is the second non-Jewish Messiah (after Cyrus):

"But like the first non-Jewish Messiah, Cyrus, who was chosen to assist the Jews in reestablishing themselves in the land of Israel after their 70-year exile in Babylon - the current non-Jewish Messiah was chosen to be of service to the Jewish people and the Jewish Messiah."

Rabbi Weisberg attributed a ritual significance having been fulfilled to the shot that is said to have hit Trump in the right ear. In the Old Testament, an awl pierced through the ear of a servant symbolizes being God's servant forever. [(Exodus 21:6)] "President Trump's right ear was grazed in a symbolic gesture of Exodus 21:6, where the Torah states that a servant who wants to remain with his master needs to have his right ear pierced. Trump was designated as God's servant and anointed one, just like Cyrus the Great almost 2,400 years ago."

Rabbi Weisberg went on to say that the so-called "redemption" will certainly take place during Donald Trump's second term. With this, the rabbi is referring to a future final "redemption", an expected period of world peace, prosperity and wisdom. According to Jewish tradition, this messianic time period is ushered in by a Jewish "redeemer", who is generally referred to as Mashiach or Messiah. He will rebuild the holy temple in Jerusalem, gather the Jewish people in Israel and lead the nations of the world. The Mashiach is generally expected to be a human.

Rabbi Isser Zalman Weisberg said: "We have clarified in several videos that the absolute deadline for the redemption is by the end of the Jewish year 5,787, which corresponds to October 2, 2027 – 1,167 days from today. Redemption will therefore certainly take place during Donald Trump's tenure. And I have good reason to believe Donald Trump has been chosen to be the one to redeem the sins of Azov through offering his assistance in rebuilding the Holy Temple on the Temple Mount and establishing the Jewish kingdom over all mankind in Jerusalem."

Rabbi Yosef Berger revealed to Breaking Israel News a 600-year-old Jewish source that says the Third Temple was to be built by the descendants of Edom as "reparation" for the destruction of the Second Temple. Further indications from esoteric sources suggest that US President Donald Trump has already initiated this process.

In rabbinic literature, Esau or Edom refers to Rome. Edom consisted largely of the descendants of Esau. According to rabbinic interpretation, Edom also stands for Christianity. The speaker of the Sanhedrin, Rabbi Hillel Weiss, stated after Trump's election that his role in building the Third Temple was essential. The Sanhedrin or "High Council" was a religious and/or political authority. It was reintroduced in 2005 as part of the planned construction of the Third Temple. Rabbi Weiss said: "The Jews will do the actual building of the Third Temple, but in order for the Third Temple to be a House of Prayer for all nations, the nations must have a part in its creation."

The Jerusalem-based Temple Institute has been planning to rebuild the Jewish Temple for some time – in its original location. The Islamic sites, the Al-Aqsa Mosque and the Dome of the Rock, would have to make way for this. The Temple Institute is actively preparing for the construction of this new temple.

The Temple Institute is sparing no expense to make the Third Temple a reality. Founded in 1987 by Rabbi Yisrael Ariel, the institution has produced, among other things, an original golden altar of incense and a seven-branched lampstand made of 24-carat gold. The utensils required for the temple service can be seen in the in-house museum in Jerusalem's Old City. The construction plans for the building of the Third Temple in Jerusalem exist and are complete there. Chaim Richman from the Temple Institute says that the building could be constructed in less than a year.

The Temple Institute also sees itself as a training center. Offspring of priests are to be trained in the ritual processes for service in the temple. The Roadmap in the light of end-time

"prophecies" by religious sects. According to the news portal "Israel365News", Donald Trump, as a non-Jewish leader of the USA, has to play a prophesized role in the construction of the Temple. According to the German historian and journalist Wolfgang Eggert, there are groups that deliberately access prophecies and try to put them into practice. These are messianically disguised groups that can be found under the guise of Christianity, as well as Judaism. Messianic groups are strongly focused on a future redeemer – often called Messiah or Mashiach. In the following, a rough roadmap will be set up leading to the "coming of the Mashiach".

Armageddon

[Explanation = according to the Bible, an end-time decisive battle; also a very great, all-destroying catastrophe]

According to the German historian Wolfgang Eggert and Jewish and Christian messianic groups, a necessary prerequisite is that Armageddon has previously occurred as a huge bloodbath. This through great tribulation, moral decay, invasions, confusion and – above all – massive wars. Followers of such an ideology are therefore logically not interested in de-escalation and peace for both peoples, as this – according to their world view, would only delay the coming of the Messiah.

There is a recording of the young Netanyahu with the former Chabad Lubavitch leader Rebbe Menachem Mendel Schneerson. Schneerson calls on Netanyahu to bring about the coming of the Messiah. Could it therefore be that Netanyahu is supposed to help the coming of the Messiah by escalating the Middle East war until it becomes a conflagration spreading across the whole world? According to a Schneerson prophecy from the 1990s, Netanyahu will be the prime minister to hand over the sceptre to the Messiah.

Many Jewish Chabad Lubavitch rabbis claim that Netanyahu is Messiah ben Joseph who is to hand over the keys to Messiah ben David when Netanyahu's reign collapses. Mashiach ben Yoseph will prepare the world for the coming of the final redeemer, Mashiach ben David: He shall wage war against the forces of evil that oppress Israel.

As early as 1871, the US war general and Satanist Albert Pike outlined three coming world wars in a letter to the Illuminati leader Mazzini. After the First and Second World Wars, he also talks about Armageddon: "And then a third world war. It is supposed to start in the Middle East, and is supposed to be a war between Judaism and Islam that spreads throughout the world. This war between Muslims and Judaism is intended to finally bring about this Armageddon."

Various geopolitical experts support this thesis

The US economist and publicist Paul Craig Roberts wrote in an article on December 23, 2024: "My fear is that Trump, having assembled a government of Zionists, will achieve nothing but a war with Iran for Israel's interest."

In an article dated December 19, 2024, independent journalist Caitlin Johnstone, who specializes in US politics, explained how Trump and Israel can hardly wait to bomb Iran: "Israeli media reports that the IDF now sees airstrikes on Iran as much easier to execute now that its pilots don't have to worry about Syrian air defenses along the way" "The Wall Street Journal reports that the Trump team is weighing its options for airstrikes on Iran to prevent it from obtaining a nuclear weapon."

A December 17, 2024 Washington Post article headlined "Syria's collapse and Israeli attacks leave Iran exposed." "Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has signaled a desire to capitalize on gains against Hamas and Hezbollah and take on Tehran more aggressively under a new U.S. administration." The article states that Trump has shown himself to be open to war with Iran and said that "anything can happen".

German financial expert Ernst Wolff also predicts a warzone in the Middle and Far East: "I predict that Trump will actually end the war in Ukraine and initiate the recovery phase, which will effectively give BlackRock carte blanche. However, I believe that he will ensure that the war in Georgia and the Balkans will continue. And above all, I believe that he will push ahead with the war against Iran and that he will also continue to seek conflict with China."

In view of the now revealed roadmap – an Armageddon unleashed in the Middle East and the establishment of the Third Temple – Trump's nominations for his government posts make perfect sense. Even the last of his nominations seems to support this roadmap unconditionally and uncritically. Here are just a few examples:

Ministers in Trump's cabinet II

Vice President JD Vance:

Vance fully supports Israel in Gaza, but calls for caution on Iran, a focus on China, and less support for Ukraine. In fact, Vance has rejected any limits on aid to Israel and insisted on supporting Israel's war on Gaza.

Secretary of State Marco Rubio:

Secretary of State-designate Marco Rubio has received $1 million from the Israel lobby. The Republican Jewish Coalition welcomed Rubio's likely nomination when it was first reported. "In these extraordinarily dangerous times, Senator Rubio is an outspoken defender of Israel who has always had the Jewish state's back." the group said in a statement.

Defense Minister Pete Hegseth:

The tattoos Hegseth wears on his body speak for themselves about his world view and his plans. A large Jerusalem Cross, the coat of arms of the Kingdom of Jerusalem, which was established by crusaders in 1099 are on his right breast. The medieval crusades were primarily directed against the Muslims in the "Holy Land", and in fact the Afghanistan veteran has spoken out in favor of even stronger support for Israel.

Hegseth spoke at the Arutz Sheva Conference 2018 [of the eponymous Israeli news portal Arutz Sheva] in Jerusalem where he stated: "(In) 2017, the Declaration of Jerusalem as the capital was a miracle and there's no reason why the miracle of the re-establishment of the Temple on the Temple Mount is not possible."

US-based geopolitical and social analyst Mike Whitney summarized Hegseth as a person as follows: "He is a promoter of Evangelical Zionism. Hegseth has claimed to adhere to the bizarre 'Third Temple Prophecy', which calls for the destruction of Muslim holy sites in Jerusalem. Hegseth's record of making wild and horrific threats towards foreign nations are too many to cite, such as his televised appeal for the United States to bomb Iranian cultural sites."

Attorney General Pam Bondi:

In an interview on Fox News on May 14, 2018, Pam Bondi said, "And Israel is one of our – if not our – greatest ally in the world. (...) I visited Israel twice as Attorney-General. And Jerusalem is Israel's capital." In October 2023, Pam Bondi told Newsmax that students who support Hamas should be deported, whether they are here on a student visa or as American citizens. Trump himself expressed similar views during the 2024 election campaign.

Home Affairs Minister Doug Burgum:

Doug Burgum said in a statement following his visit to Israel in September 2024: "At a time when Iran is at war with Israel on seven fronts, ... now is the time to stand with Israel. (...) We need to stop the current (Biden's) administration's policy of appeasing Iran and pressuring Israel, and restore the policy of maximum pressure on Iran with maximum support for Israel."

Secretary of Health and Human Services Robert F. Kennedy Jr.:

On June 14, 2024, Kennedy Jr. reaffirmed his opposition to a ceasefire in Gaza. In an interview with the Reuters news agency on March 21, 2024, Kennedy offered Israel unwavering support, calling it a "moral nation" that rightly responded to Hamas provocations with its attacks on Gaza. He questioned the necessity of a six-week ceasefire which was supported by President Joe Biden.

At a press conference on June 1, 2023, Kennedy Jr. responded to a question about why he deleted a tweet about former Pink Floyd musician Roger Waters: "I made the tweet applauding Roger Waters for his courage opposing the Covid mandates and the Ukraine war. I was unaware of his position of Israel. And when I learned that, I immediately took it down."

Minister of Homeland Security Kristi Noem:

In July 2023, Governor Kristi Noem issued a statement of support for the Israeli people and Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu: "In the coming days, all Americans – and the whole world – must stand firm in our resolve to support the Israeli people. (...) Godspeed to you, my friend Prime Minister Netanyahu, and to your people. You will win, and you have our support every step of the way."

Other key positions:

Director of the CIA John Ratcliffe

Ratcliffe said that "Iran committed 'acts of war' against the US by allegedly hacking the Trump campaign's emails and allegedly plotting to assassinate Trump". He says the USA should carry out attacks on Iran together with Israel.

Head of the Department of Government Efficiency Elon Musk

Tech billionaire Elon Musk has donated more than 250 million dollars to support Donald Trump's election campaign. He also took a more active role in US policy, especially when it came to the Middle East. At an election rally for Donald Trump, he criticized Iran and spoke out in favour of strong support for Israel.

Shortly after Trump's election victory, Musk posted the words "Novus Ordo Seclorum" over a photo with Trump. – As an allusion to the inscription on the dollar under the pyramid with the "All-seeing Eye" of Lucifer – "A New World Order".

US Ambassador to Israel Mike Huckabee:

Donald Trump sends another clear signal in Middle East policy with the appointment of Mike Huckabee as US Ambassador to Israel. Huckabee has been one of the most prominent voices of the "Christian Zionists" for many years. Even after his nomination, the former Baptist minister and governor of Arkansas insists on his line of not speaking of the "West Bank", but of "Judea and Samaria". Huckabee has also repeatedly shown sympathy for the occupation of the Palestinian autonomous territories.

Mike Huckabee is backed by powerful lobby organizations such as "Christians United for Israel" (CUFI) with millions of members. The support of Israel serves the hope of salvation for the return of Jesus, whom the Jews should then also recognize as their Messiah.

Until then, however, Israel will become the Armageddon battlefield of the end times, announced the chairman of CUFI, John Hagee, in front of thousands of his followers in October.

These are just a few examples. This common denominator of uncritical support for Israel runs through all the people Trump has appointed to his government team. So nothing stands in the way of Trump and his backers igniting a Third World War in the Middle East so that the Third Temple can be erected on the Temple Mount. All this with the ultimate goal of a one-world government headquartered in Jerusalem.

The establishment of a One World Government with headquarters in Jerusalem
In his documentary "The Mystery of Israel – Solved!", David Sorensen says he is in contact with several people who have left the financial elites and their Luciferian ritual practices: "And all of them say the same thing." "All these people who came forth from these financial elites testify that their ultimate goal is to set up a one world government." – Global governance. And they want the headquarters to be in Jerusalem."

"Zionism is indeed the philosophy or the movement of people who want to establish a new Israel as the center of a one world government, Sorensen said.

Their plan is to incite world war so that they can use that as an excuse for establishing a one world government which would then supposedly bring peace. We have the choice to fall into this trap or to open our eyes and have the courage to stand up for what is right and prevent their agenda."

Conclusion:

The statements of the various rabbis, Trump's Cabinet II and his government team obviously allow only one conclusion: Trump is paving the way: First, to shift the warzones to the Middle East and defeat the "enemies" of Israel. Second, to create the conditions for the Third Temple on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem to be built and put into operation which will inevitably lead to a bloody conflict or the 3rd World War predicted by Albert Pike – or in other words – Armageddon.

Third, that a kind of central world government based in Jerusalem can be installed, together with a unified occult religion. If one considers the striking statements of the personalities quoted in this documentary, it is hard to imagine that this center in Jerusalem will bring about the longed-for world peace. On the contrary, it gives the impression of being ruled, controlled and monitored with an iron rod, suppressing all individuality and ostracizing those who think differently.

The coming months will show whether the roadmap shown here as a forecast will be implemented in reality. But how can we really achieve the world peace everyone is longing for?

On the 37th World Peace Day, which was September 21, 2018, Kla.TV founder Ivo Sasek explained the secret of how lasting peace can be achieved – whether personally, interreligiously or globally. He said, it is important to distinguish that peace is not a goal – neither a heavenly nor an earthly Jerusalem in the future. Peace is the way, peace IS the power – "here and now"!

"It is an energy machine, the peace of God, and it is within the Muslim as well as in the Christian, the Jew or the Hindu. It is in every human being, but it depends on whether I am oriented towards this. I have to get involved in this experiment of living power-oriented, it's like a contract, like a handshake, like a marriage. And as long as I ignore the fact that this source of energy is there, I will always be chasing peace, I will always have a struggle."

"I have found this secret and I have taught it to thousands and today we are teaching it to thousands of people and this energy is the way, the reason why we have peace. Peace as a path accompanies us. It is not a goal to reach at some point. It is our starting capital, our path, our energy in everything."
